Famous Slogans Given Freedom Fighters in Brief

Inquilab Zindabad – Shaheed Bhagat Singh

Meaning “Long live the revolution,” this slogan was coined by Maulana Hasrat Mohani and popularized by Bhagat Singh during the Central Assembly bombing in Delhi.

जिसका अर्थ है "इंकलाब जिंदाबाद", यह नारा मौलाना हसरत मोहानी द्वारा गढ़ा गया था और भगत सिंह द्वारा दिल्ली में सेंट्रल असेंबली में बमबारी के दौरान लोकप्रिय हुआ था।

Jai Hind – Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose

Coined by Zain-ul Abideen Hasan, this slogan was later used by Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose to inspire unity and patriotism during the freedom struggle.

ज़ैन-उल आबिदीन हसन द्वारा गढ़ा गया यह नारा बाद में नेताजी सुभाष चंद्र बोस द्वारा स्वतंत्रता संग्राम के दौरान एकता और देशभक्ति को प्रेरित करने के लिए इस्तेमाल किया गया था।

Tum Mujhe Khoon Do, Main Tumhe Aazadi Dunga – Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose

Netaji urged people to join the fight against British rule, promising freedom in exchange for their sacrifices while leading the Azad Hind Fauz.

नेताजी ने आज़ाद हिंद फौज का नेतृत्व करते हुए लोगों के बलिदान के बदले में आज़ादी का वादा करते हुए लोगों से ब्रिटिश शासन के खिलाफ लड़ाई में शामिल होने का आग्रह किया।

Satyamev Jayate – Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya

Meaning “Truth alone triumphs,” this slogan was chosen as India’s national motto in 1950, originating from the Hindu scripture Mundaka Upanishad.

जिसका अर्थ है "सच्चाई की ही जीत होती है," इस नारे को 1950 में भारत के राष्ट्रीय आदर्श वाक्य के रूप में चुना गया था, जो हिंदू धर्मग्रंथ मुंडका उपनिषद से लिया गया था।

Sarfaroshi Ki Tamanna – Ramprasad Bismil

Inspired by Bismil Azimabadi’s poem, Ramprasad Bismil used this slogan to call for action against British rule, highlighting the urgency of resistance.

बिस्मिल अज़ीमाबादी की कविता से प्रेरित होकर, रामप्रसाद बिस्मिल ने प्रतिरोध की तात्कालिकता को उजागर करते हुए, ब्रिटिश शासन के खिलाफ कार्रवाई का आह्वान करने के लिए इस नारे का इस्तेमाल किया।

Sare Jahaan Se Acha Hindustan Hamara – Muhammad Iqbal

This patriotic slogan, penned by Muhammad Iqbal in 1904 as Tarana-e-hind, praises India as the best nation in the world.

1904 में तराना-ए-हिंद के नाम से मुहम्मद इकबाल द्वारा लिखा गया यह देशभक्तिपूर्ण नारा भारत को दुनिया के सर्वश्रेष्ठ राष्ट्र के रूप में प्रशंसित करता है।

Aaram Haram Hai – Jawahar Lal Nehru

India’s first Prime Minister, Jawahar Lal Nehru, coined this slogan to encourage continuous action and struggle against British colonialism.

भारत के पहले प्रधान मंत्री जवाहर लाल नेहरू ने ब्रिटिश उपनिवेशवाद के खिलाफ निरंतर कार्रवाई और संघर्ष को प्रोत्साहित करने के लिए यह नारा गढ़ा था।

Jai Jawan Jai Kisan – Lal Bahadur Shastri

Given by Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri in 1965, this slogan highlights the importance of soldiers and farmers for the nation’s strength.

1965 में प्रधान मंत्री लाल बहादुर शास्त्री द्वारा दिया गया यह नारा देश की मजबूती के लिए सैनिकों और किसानों के महत्व को उजागर करता है।

Simon Go Back – Lala Lajpat Rai

This slogan was chanted during protests against the Simon Commission in 1928, symbolizing the widespread opposition to British policies.

यह नारा 1928 में साइमन कमीशन के खिलाफ विरोध प्रदर्शन के दौरान लगाया गया था, जो ब्रिटिश नीतियों के व्यापक विरोध का प्रतीक था।

Swaraj Mera Janam Sidh Adhikar Hai, Aur Main Ise Lekar Rahunga – Bal Gangadhar Tilak

Tilak declared Swaraj (self-rule) as his birthright, motivating Indians to demand complete independence from British rule.

तिलक ने स्वराज (स्व-शासन) को अपना जन्मसिद्ध अधिकार घोषित किया, जिससे भारतीयों को ब्रिटिश शासन से पूर्ण स्वतंत्रता की मांग करने के लिए प्रेरित किया गया।

Vande Mataram – Bankim Chandra Chatterjee

Written by Bankim Chandra Chatterjee in 1870, this poem became a powerful slogan during the independence movement, symbolizing devotion to the motherland.

1870 में बंकिम चंद्र चटर्जी द्वारा लिखी गई यह कविता स्वतंत्रता आंदोलन के दौरान एक शक्तिशाली नारा बन गई, जो मातृभूमि के प्रति समर्पण का प्रतीक है।

Dilli Chalo – Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose

Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose urged the Indian National Army to march towards Delhi in 1944, aiming to liberate the country from British control.

नेताजी सुभाष चंद्र बोस ने देश को ब्रिटिश नियंत्रण से मुक्त कराने के उद्देश्य से 1944 में भारतीय राष्ट्रीय सेना से दिल्ली की ओर मार्च करने का आग्रह किया।

Do or Die (Karo ya Maro) – Mahatma Gandhi

Gandhi's slogan during the 1942 Quit India Movement called for determined action, urging Indians to fight for independence at any cost.

1942 के भारत छोड़ो आंदोलन के दौरान गांधी के नारे ने दृढ़ कार्रवाई का आह्वान किया, भारतीयों से किसी भी कीमत पर स्वतंत्रता के लिए लड़ने का आग्रह किया।

Slogans by Mahatma Gandhi

"Do or Die"

"Humne Ghutne Tekkar Roti Mangi Kintu Pathar Mile"

"You can chain me, you can torture me, you can even destroy this body, but you will never imprison my mind."

"Freedom is never dear at any price. It is the breath of life. What would a man not pay for living?"

"Civil disobedience becomes a sacred duty when the state becomes lawless or corrupt."

"Freedom is not worth having if it does not connote freedom to err. It passes my comprehension how human beings, be they ever so experienced and able, can delight in depriving other human beings of that precious right."

Note: The slogan of 'Quit India' was proposed to Mahatma Gandhi in 1942, however it was coined by Yusuf Meherally (Socialist Congress Leader)

Slogans by Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose

"Jai Hind "

"Give me blood, I will give you freedom"

"Freedom is not given – it is taken."

"It is our duty to pay for our liberty with our own blood. The freedom that we shall win through our sacrifice and exertions, we shall be able to preserve with our own strength."

"One individual may die but that idea will, after his death, incarnate itself in a thousand lives."

"Soldiers who always remain faithful to their nation, who are always prepared to sacrifice their lives, are invincible."

Slogans by Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay

"Vande Mataram"

“When a man is in doubt what to do, he goes wherever he happens to be first called.”

Slogans by Bal Gangadhar Tilak

“Swaraj Mera Janamsiddh adhikar hai, aur main ise lekar rahunga”

“Our nation is like a tree of which the original trunk is swarajya and the branches are swadeshi and boycott.”

“Swaraj is my birthright, and I shall have it!”

Slogans by Lal Bahadur Shastri

“Jai Jawaan, Jai Kisaan”

“The preservation of freedom is not the task of soldiers alone. The whole nation has to be strong.”

“True democracy or the swaraj of the masses can never come through untruthful and violent means.”

“We have now to fight for peace with the same courage and determination as we fought against aggression.”

Slogans by Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya

“Satyamev Jayathe”

Slogans by Bhagat Singh

“Inquilab Zindabad”

“They may kill me, but they cannot kill my ideas. They can crush my body, but they will not be able to crush my spirit.”

“‘Revolution’ does not necessarily involve sanguinary strife nor is there any place in it for individual vendetta. It is not the cult of the bomb and the pistol. By ‘Revolution’ we mean that the present order of things, which is based on manifest injustice, must change.”

Slogans by Ramprasad Bismil

“Sarfarooshi Ki Tamanna, Ab hamare dil mein hai”

“Even if I have to face death a thousand times for the sake of my Motherland, I shall not be sorry. Oh, Lord! Grant me a hundred births in India. But grant me this, too, that each time I may give up my life in the service of the Motherland.”

Slogans by Chandra Shekhar Azad

“Dushman ki goliyon ka hum samna karenge, Azad hee rahein hain, Azad hee rahenge”

“If yet your blood does not rage, then it is water that flows in your veins. For what is the flush of youth, if it is not of service to the motherland.”

Slogans by Jawaharlal Nehru

“Araam Haraam hai”

“Blood and tears are going to be our lot, whether we like them or not. Our blood and tears will flow; maybe the parched soil of India needs them so that the fine flower of freedom may grow again.”

Slogans by Ashfaqullah Khan

“There is no dream and if there is, there only one to see my children struggling for the same and for which I am expected to be finished”.

Slogans by Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel

“Manpower without Unity is not a strength unless it is harmonized and united properly, then it becomes a spiritual power.”

Slogans by B. R. Ambedkar

My final words of advice to you are educated, agitate and organize; have faith in yourself. With justice on our side, I do not see how we can lose our battle. The battle to me is a matter of joy. The battle is in the fullest sense spiritual. There is nothing material or social in it. For ours is a battle not for wealth or for power. It is a battle for freedom. It is the battle of reclamation of human personality.

Slogans by Rabindranath Tagore

“I am willing to serve my country, but my worship I reserve for Right which is far greater than my country. To worship my country as a god is to bring a curse upon it.”

“Patriotism cannot be our final spiritual shelter; my refuge is humanity. I will not buy glass for the price of diamonds, and I will never allow patriotism to triumph over humanity as long as I live.”
